This scholarship is an award program jointly sponsored by the North Slave Metis Alliance (NSMA) and De Beers Canada Inc. (DBCI) for NSMA members who are enrolled in a recognized, accredited educational institution in secondary, post secondary, technical or adult education program. The NSMA and DBCI scholarship program was established to encourage beneficiaries to continue with their education and pursue academic excellence.

Scholarship categories include:

- Secondary (Grades 10, 11 and 12)
- Adult Education
- Post Secondary / Technical Institution

Eligible are those beneficiaries who demonstrate a financial need to pursue a post-secondary education. The closing date for applications is October 31st. Additional information and application forms are available from the NSMA office.

If you are a member of the NSMA – a secondary (Grades 10, 11 & 12) student, a recent graduate, a post-secondary student, or enrolled in a technical institute – and you are ready to hit the ground looking for scholarship money, we're looking for you!
